FLOOD SITUATION IMPROVED IN MEMPHIS.

Frankfort, April 19.—Only a formal ballot of one vote was taken in the joint assembly today for Senator The situation is acute and what will be the outcome no man can tell. It is the general opinion that Dr. Hunsicker will withdraw and that he will be permitted to name his successor as caucus nominee. That either a Republican or Senator Martin will be elected very soon is the general opinion.

STOCKS SLUMPING.

WHEAT JUMPING.

War News Sends the Former Down and the Latter Up.

New York, April 19.—There was a marked decline in stocks on the market this morning, attributable, it is said, to the war news from Greece. There was a slump all along the line, ranging from three to seven cents.

Chicago, April 19.—The effect of the war news on the wheat market here was electric. Prices ranged four to seven above those of Saturday and there was the greatest excitement on exchange.

FOR THE ROMANCE.

A Paducah Couple Go to Metropolis to Marry.

Miss Jessie Gammon Weds Mr. Wooten, Both of the City.

Yesterday morning Miss Jessie Gammon and Mr. Eugene Wooten, both of this city, left for Metropolis and were married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. R. Gammon, the well known tailor, and the happy groom is a well known young business man.

There was no objection to the match, the couple just going to Metropolis for the romance.

A BAD EGG.

More Evidence Accumulating Daily.

Against Harry Livingston, Alias Jarvis, the Alleged Ringing Bros. Agent.

Unless appearances are very deceptive, the man now in jail known here as Harry Livingston, agent for Ringing Bros. circus, is an exceedingly smooth citizen, many of whose operations are still unknown.

Yesterday Mr. R. G. Ball, an agent for Burroughs' circus, heard of Livingston's operations and made some inquiries concerning him which resulted in the discovery that he tallies exactly with the description of a man going by the name of Maddox and Franklin, who has worked many cities in the country by representing Burroughs' and other circuses. He saw Livingston and asked him if his name was Maddox or Franklin, but received negative replies. It is said, however, that Livingston has told parties in the jail that he was known in some places as Maddox. If Livingston is the man he is badly wanted in half a dozen places.

HARNESS BROKE.

Exciting Runaway On Sunday Afternoon.

An exciting runaway in which two harnesses were broken and a young man narrowly escaped injury occurred Sunday afternoon. They were driving on West street when the harness broke and the horse took a wild start to run. One of the young men attempted to jump out, but was thrown to the ground and painfully bruised. The other, who was driving, kept hold of the reins until the horse was reined, when the horse slowed up and he was enabled to jump out without sustaining anything more serious than the injury to his clothes.

Mr. Charles Farrell's Little Son Dies of Tonsillitis.

DEATH WAS UNEXPECTED.

Mr. Charles Farrell's Little Son Dies of Tonsillitis.

OTHER DEATHS OF A DAY.

The many friends of Mrs. J. M. Walton will be grieved to learn of her death which took place last night at her home on Eighth and Jefferson.

She has been in bad health for some weeks, but while it was known that her condition was serious, her death was entirely unexpected and came very suddenly. She was perfectly conscious up to the moment of her death.

She was formerly Miss Ethel Mason, the daughter of Mr. Jay Mason, who was a highly respected citizen of Paducah. She was 26 years old and was married in May, 1915, to Mr. J. M. Walton, the well known employee of Covington Bros. She leaves a daughter, Miss May, a little girl of two years.

Mrs. Walton was a pure woman, of a beautiful character, a consistent Christian and a loving mother. Her friends were numbered by the score.

The funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence at 10 o'clock. The services will be held by Rev. W. K. Peard and the burial will be at Oak Grove.

Robert, the little son of Mr. Chas. Farrell, of the Robins Glass and Queensware Company, died of tonsillitis yesterday morning at 10:30 at the Whitefield residence, at Seventh and Court. The funeral took place this afternoon from the residence.

DULL BUSINESS.

Causes a Great Reduction in Train Service.

Two Local Freight Trains Taken Off Between Paducah and Memphis Yesterday.

The heavy decrease in freight business of the past few weeks has caused a very considerable reduction in train service on the Illinois Central. On yesterday two of the four freight trains were taken off, one between Paducah and Newbern and one between Newbern and Memphis. This arrangement now leaves only one local from Paducah and Newbern, going out one day and returning the next. The reduction is only temporary and after business picks up they will be put back as usual.

The locals will leave Paducah on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays and will leave Newbern on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

DESPERATE FIGHTING

Between the Greeks and Turks by Land and Water.

WAR BEGINS IN EARNEST.

The Turks Have Rather the Advantage Thus Far.

IRREGULARS CUTTING THEIR WAY.

Foot of Miloussa Pass, April 19, 10 a. m.—A fierce battle raged in the pass all night long. The Greeks, who entered and descended toward the valley, encountered four battalions of Turks, who drove them back at the point of the bayonet. The force garrisoning the Turkish block house, which the Greeks had encircled before entering the pass.

Nesah Pasha commanding the fifth division, occupied Mount Paras with a great force, while Hain Pasha commanding the sixth division, prepared to enter the Tuhian pass, and Hain Pasha, with the fourth division, occupied the Miloussa pass.

Before dawn Ellison Pasha rode out to direct the disposition of these divisions. A general engagement ensued. The battle still continues along the entire pass, over 30,000 men being engaged. The combat turned on the possession of the Greek block house, which was most fortuitously defended. Several vigorous attacks were made by the Turks without success, but finally, about 9 o'clock, by a magnificent dash, they took the block house at the point of the bayonet.

The Greeks are still defending their positions on the summit of the hills. At the present moment four battalions of Meudukh Pasha's division are advancing to the frontier positions already taken. The Turkish fighting line, the Turkish artillery doing splendid execution under the command of Hain Pasha.

The correspondent of the Associated Press says: "I regret to have to announce the death of Hain Pasha at Miloussa. The battle is still undecided, but the Turks, without calling up the reserves, have taken almost the whole pass. It is impossible to give details as to the losses. I saw many groups of wounded men, but they were mostly on the bright. Ambulances have been used to bring them in. I can not say whether the Turks intend to advance on Larissa."

ALLARD'S CASE.

Discontinued Pending Further Investigation.

Doubts of His Sanity Cause the Temporary Suspension of the Case.

Parties who arrived in the city this morning from Metropolis state that Oliver Allard's rape case was not thrown out of court as has been stated, but that the case has been temporarily discontinued pending a further investigation by physicians in regard to Allard's sanity. There is a prevailing impression that his peculiar actions and much of the trouble he has been in have been the result of a mild insanity, which of course would be sufficient grounds for the dismissal of the case.

SIPE WATER

Plays an Important Part in the Police Court.

ED POWELL HELD FOR THE JURY.

Said to Have Stolen $10 While Brushing It. D. Thompson's Clothes.

SMALL BOCKET THIS MORNING.

Maud Yeltins and Fannie Beavers were presented in the police court this morning on the charge of using insulting language to Joe Berry. The evidence developed the fact that Berry had made some "incongruous" remarks about Cairo sipe water and that Maud Yeltins commonly known as "Sipe Water Maud" had taken them unto herself, and smearing under the opportunity had been established by insinuating that Berry had once been arrested for stealing logs. The case was dismissed.

Ed Powell, a diminutive colored boy, was presented on the charge of stealing a $10 bill from Mr. H. D. Thompson while brushing his clothes. Judge Sanders held the case laid before the grand jury. Powell claims to be innocent and says the bill was given to him by another colored boy to have changed.

J. P. Winters was fined $1 and costs for using insulting language.

There were no other cases on the docket, not a single arrest having been made on Sunday.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Praised Very Highly by Underwriter Johnson.

He Says Another Fire Station is Unnecessary, for the Present at Least.

Councilman Kunkler, of the fire committee, stated yesterday to a fire reporter that the new fire station in the Howlandtown district of the city would not be necessary.

On Saturday he had a talk with Underwriter Johnson who is now engaged in rearing the city, and to his gratification that gentleman stated that he had made a thorough examination of Paducah's department and had found it to be of the first excellence. He said that taking into consideration the size of the city, Paducah had the best department in the state. Mr. Johnson said that for the present at least, a new fire station would be unnecessary, the only thing that would be expected by the insurance people being the keeping of the department in its present good condition and the gradual addition of new fire fighting devices as they become necessary.

Paducah is in the first class, as regards insurance rating. That means a saving of from $10,000 to $15,000 a year in insurance premiums.

When the Fowler left the wharfboat at 8 o'clock this morning Mr. Tom Ely and Miss Kate Purdum, both of the Metropolis neighborhood, were aboard bound for Metropolis with the intention of being married. Miss Purdum has been visiting friends in this city for two weeks and her parents were expected to call for her today. Young Ely realizing that time was precious the parents of the young lady being opposed to the match, arrived this morning ahead of the parents and the couple are now doubtless united.

MITT COPE

Said to Have Been Indicted This Morning.

THREE COUNTS FOR FORGERY.

Illinois Central Indicted for Obstructing a Public Highway.

RILEY GAY GETS TWO YEARS.

According to private information it is reported this afternoon that Mr. Mitt Cope, formerly president of the First National bank of this city, was indicted this morning by the grand jury on three different accounts for forgery. The notes which he is said to have forged are:

W. J. Flayden and R. A. Mayer, $6,000.

G. R. Allen, $3,500.

R. E. Griffith, $3,500.

All the parties live in Mayfield.

The facts in the case have been known to certain parties who were in a position to know, for several weeks, but have previously been kept out of the papers.

The matter came to light on March 6th, when Mr. Cope sent for President R. L. Reeves and Cashier T. A. Baker and confessed to having forged the three notes mentioned above. That night he told his family goodbye and so far as he positively knows he has not been seen since. It is stated, however, on good authority that he was for a time in Cairo, Ill. at the house of a friend. He left there, however, three or four weeks ago with the avowed intention of going to Mexico.

The amount, $13,000 is covered by a personal bond of $50,000 signed by several very prominent men in this city and also by a bond of $20,000 in the Fidelity and Deposit company, of Baltimore. Negotiations are now being made for a settlement, which will be made as soon as a few details are arranged.

Mr. Cope has many friends in this city and many think that his troubles are the result of an unbalanced mind.

Among the other indictments, all of which have been suppressed, are said to be one against the Illinois Central railroad for obstructing the public highway at Florence Station, and also several against colored people for immorality.

In the circuit court yesterday, Riley Gay, charged with breaking into Attorney Goss' room, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Nearly the entire day has been occupied with the trial of Will Skelton, charged with breaking into the Leach residence on North Fourth street. Much testimony is being introduced and the trial will probably not be concluded until tomorrow.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

R. C. AND ST. L. MILWAUKEE.

Conductor Kirkland doubled back to Memphis this morning, Tom Pyles lying over.

Brakeman John Hall spent yesterday in Benton, which holds a great attraction for him.

Conductor Atwood will get work orders for the ditching train while she is on the South end.

Engine 5, Sales and Waynick, left this morning pulling the steam shovel. She has a long haul before her.

J. L. Martin, representing the Kelly Goodfellow Shoe Co., of St. Louis, passed through the city this morning for his headquarters.

Engine 218 departed yesterday afternoon for the South end. Sam Lowe and Ed Lottin will command her while on the work train.

Thornberg and Barkdale are home again on the 309. They both looked well pleased and happy as they lapsed from their respective cab windows.

R. J. Waters, representing Covington Bros. & Co., and Herman Graham with M. Livingston & Co., were the road agents in on the morning train.

Fireman Frank Turner is bored to combat for the present, being affected with several large rashes. Ernest Speed is the left bower on the 810 until he gets well.

Fireman Tom Knight and Mike traded shovels this morning for a few days. Tom takes the 123 on the road while "Bumblebee" chuffs the yard engine awaiting of an expected event.

Fireman George Kane got down at one of the stations last trip to take out the ash pan and saw a fine red bird in it. He called Hank Barber to his assistance and they succeeded in catching it.

George, in putting it into the tank box let it escape. He mourns its loss as his best girl is passionately fond of red birds and they are hard to trap.

The other day as a large funeral cortege was passing on a South side street with Undertaker Frank Edinger seated beside the driver of the hearse, one of the bystanders on the street corner, yelled to him, "Oh, Frank, who's dead?" several times.

Mr. Edinger pointing to the inside of the hearse, replied, "The man in the coffin." An appropriate response, for sure.

Fireman Billy Kane is very sleepy headed of a morning and for that reason in common with all good house heads he also occupies the back side of the bed so that his better half can get up to make the fire and attend to other matters about the house without waking him up. All day Saturday Mrs. Kane was engaged coloring Easter eggs for her little nieces and nephews and the receptacle in which they were stored looked really beautiful with its rain-bow hued contents.

Yesterday morning after she had the maternal repeat ready she concluded to have some fun out of Billy. She selected fifteen of the prettiest and most variegated of the "Rabbit" fruit and after arranging a pattern between the sheets placed them in it. Then she grabbed Billy by his binnacle and gave it a pretty strong pull, telling him to get up a "breakfast was ready." She expected him to throw the covers back and spring up, but Billy who was dreaming that he would have to throw six shovels of coal into the firebox of the 312 to climb the Timberlake Hill rolled over towards the front edge of the bed, amusing the juvenile delights into fragments, and as they were not quite so hard as adamant the sheets and his night shirt were a sight to see. They are now discussing who the joke is really on. Billy says he can't tell whether the eggs hitbed out chickens or jack rabbits and his wife will have to launder the linen.
